THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From SATURDAY January 2, to SATURDAY January 9, 1742.

PRAGUE, September 24.

IT ſeems that the Storm which threaten'd Vienna is to burſt upon this City; however, we hope to give the Enemy Trouble enough, if they don't begin with us very quickly. Yeſterday 17 Companies of Seckendorff's Regiment, and 250 Men of Wenceſlas Wallis's Regiment, who had been taken Priſoners by the Pruſſians, arrived here to reinforce our Garriſon

Dantzick, Sept. 20. We don't hear that the Swediſh Fleet has yet undertaken any Thing againſt the Ruſſians. It is reported, that the Swedes have detach'd fifteen Sail of that Fleet towards the Sound, in order to lay in wait for the Ruſſian Squadron that is coming from Archangel. Our Advices from the Frontiers ſay, that the Turks aſſemble in great Numbers on the Borders of Podolia

Venice, Sept. 23. According to the laſt Letters from Conſtantinople, they make a Myſtery no longer of the Hoſtilities committed by Thamas Kouli Kan againſt the Grand Signior The Porte, though very uneaſy about this War, feigns to deſpiſe it: Nevertheleſs, ſixteen Chambers of Janiſſaries have begun their March towards the Frontiers of Perſia, ten Chambers of Zebedi, 8000 Topigi, and 3000 Spahis have taken the ſame Rout.

Vienna, Sept. 30 A Report is juſt now ſpread, that the French and Bavarian Troops are in full Motion towards this Capital; but we don't know whether there is any Foundation for this Report: Many ſeem to reject it, being aſſured that thoſe Troops are not numerous enough to undertake the Siege of a City ſo well provided with all Neceſſaries for a long and vigorous Defence, and in which there is ſo ſtrong a Garriſon of regular Troops.

Nevertheleſs, we continue to take all neceſſary Precautions, being inform'd that there is arriv'd upon the Danube, between Paſſau and Lintz, a great Number of Ships laden with heavy Artillery, and all ſorts of Implements neceſſary for a Siege.

We lately launch'd fifteen Saicks, and are building a great Number more to ſerve upon the Danube. The Burghers began laſt Week to uſe their military Exerciſes.

The Count de Godeck paſs'd Yeſterday by this City, going to Presbourg, and 'tis ſaid carries good News relating to the Peace with the King of Pruſſia.

Paris, October 5. We hear that the Army commanded by the Marſhal de Maillebois paſſed the Rhine on the 23d and 24th of laſt Month, over the Bridge of eighty-nine Boats

Paris, Oct. 6. It is poſitively ſaid here, that an Agreement will be made for the Queen of Hungary with the Elector of Bavaria, that Power in Germany may be properly balanc'd, and no Prince therein be left too potent.

Hamburgh, October 6 We have certain Advice, that 14,000 Coſſacks and Calmocks have paſs'd the Neva, in order to go to Finland, to haraſs the Swedes during the enſuing Winter; and 'tis again reported, that the Court of Ruſſia has reſolv'd to ſend 40,000 Men to the Aſſiſtance of the Queen of Hungary.

LONDON, September 29.

They write from Madeira, of the 18th of Sept. that the Succeſs Man of War, Capt. Thompſon, from Plymouth, arrived the 2d Inſtant, and brought with him, a large French Ship, nam'd Le Grand Juſtice, laden with Sugars, Cochineal, Cocoa, Hides, 180,000 Dollars, and 60 Bars of Gold and Silver, which in all Probability will turn out a Prize. The ſecond Captain's Journal was found, which gave an Account of the Ship's lading and unlading at the Havannah. There were ſeveral Things on Board for Women's Apparel, very valuable, the Caſes directed for Don Blaſs, by which it's imagined that it is his Treaſure on Board. They pretend they came from Cape Francois in St. Domingo, but cou'd ſhew no Clearance from thence; ſo at length own'd that part of the Cargo was Spaniſh Property. They both ſail'd from thence the 10th for Boſton, where 'tis ſuppos'd the Affair will be determin'd.

October 1. Commodore Browne, Commander of the Duke Man of War, of 90 Guns, has deſired Leave to reſign, on account of his bad State of Health.

Capt Mead, Commander of the Sandwich, of 90 Guns, has likewiſe obtain'd Leave to reſign, on account of his bad State of Health.

Capt. Pearſe and Capt. Slaughter are appointed by the Lords of the Admiralty to ſucceed them.

October 6. The Letters by Yeſterday's French Mail mention, that a French Ship, richly laden with Cocoa, Cochineal, &c was ſafely arrived at Bilboa, from La Vera Cruz. This is the third Ship which came from thence, one of which arriv'd in Port L'Orient, and the other was taken by the Succeſs Man of War.

Letters from Paris mention, that an Account is ordered to be tranſmitted to Court, of the exact Number of Militia throughout the Kingdom of France, in order to ſerve as Occaſion ſhall require, either by Part of them being incorporated with the regular Troops, or otherwiſe.

PHILADELPHIA, November 19.

Extract of a Letter from Antigua, dated October 13. 1741.

'There arrived here Yeſterday from Dominica, the Son of the Governor of St. Jago, one of the Cape de Verd Iſlands; he's a Negro, but a very intelligible Man, who Yeſterday was call'd before the General and Council then ſitting, and upon Oath declar'd, that he had been at Martinico for ſome Time, and that a few Days before he left that Place, there arriv'd a 50 Gun French Man of War from France, who left the Fleet ſhe came out with at Sea, being 19 Men of War more, all bound for Martinico. That the General of Martinico had engaged to the Number of 30 Sloops in the King of France's Service, and a great Number of Boats, ſo that I believe we ſhall ſoon be paid a Viſit.

'P.S. We had much the ſame Account as the above, from a Gentleman at St. Martin's, to his Brother here, about a Week ago.'

CHARLES-TOWN, January 8.

We hear that Mr. Richard Hill is appointed a Member of His Majesty's Honourable Council of this Province.

Last Week 'twas reported, that Gen. Oglethorpe intended to besiege St Augustine again, and that he was to set out very soon for that Place.

Sunday last arrived Capt. Marshal in six Days from Providence, and brings us the agreeable News, of Capt. Davidson's (in the Victory of Rhode-Island) having taken a large Spanish Privateer, with a valuable Cargo on board, which had taken several Vessels on the Coast of Virginia: Capt. Marshal says he saw the Prisoners on the board the Victory, and that Capt. Davidson daily expected his Prize into Providence.

The same Day arrived here from the same Place, his Majesty's Ship the Rose, commanded by Capt. Thomas Frankland. Also

Capt. Forrest from London, who has on Board part of the Baggage of his Excellency James Glenn, Esq; Governor of this Province, who we hear wou'd soon embark for this Place in one of his Majesty's 40 Gun Ships.

We hear from North Carolina, that a Spanish Privateer has again lately been on that Coast, and taken Two Vessels off Okerecock, and has also done as much Mischief on that Coast as ever Don Pedro did.

From Frederica we have Advice, that both the General's Privateers are sail'd to cruise off St Augustine.

SIR,

THE Religious Commotions in the Colony of Connecticut being very uncommon and extraordinary it is tho't proper to give the Publick some Account of them. In general things appear in two very different and contrary Aspects, and Men are greatly divided in their Opinions, according as they happen most Intensely to view the one or the other. On the one side these religious Commotions have produced a general Concern upon the Minds of Men, a Reformation from some Vices and Follies, and some seem to have passed thro' a saving Change; so far all good Men rejoice. But on the other hand many things appear in a quite different and contrary Aspect. Some Ministers pretend to immediate Impressions from the Spirit to leave their own People a long time, and to travel about Preaching every Day in the Week, and by vertue of such Commission they suppose they have sufficient Warrant, to go into other Men's Pulpits or at least into their especial Charge, without their desire or consent; and have laid aside their Studies, Notes, and Preparations, upon pretence of being immediately influenced and impressed by the Spirit what to preach, and some of them have declared that almost all that they Preach is by the immediate Impression of the Holy Ghost putting a long Chain of Thoughts into their Minds and Words into their Mouths. And their main Design in Preaching seems not so much to inform Men's Judgments as to terrify and affright their Imaginations, by awful Words and frightful Representations, to set the Congregation into hideous Shrieks and Outcries. And to this end, In every Place where they come, they represent that God is doing extraordinary Things in other Places, and that they are some of the last hardned Wretches that stand out: That they are now hanging over the Pit of eternal Destruction, and just ready, this Moment, to fall into it: That Hell Fire now Flashes in their Faces; and that the Devil now stands just ready to seize upon them and carry them to Hell; and they will often times repeat the awful Words, Damn'd! Damn'd! Damn'd! three or four Times over. This frights the little Children, and sets them to screaming, and that frights their tender Mothers and sets them to screaming, and by Degrees spreads over a great Part of the Congregation; and 40, 50 or 100 of them all screaming together, makes such awful and hidious Noise, as will make a Man's Hair stand an end Some will faint away, fall down upon the Floor, wallow and foam; some Women will rend off their Caps, Handkerchiefs and other Cloaths, tear their Hair down about their Ears, and seem perfectly bereav'd of their Reason. After a little while, commonly next Day, some will come perfectly to their Right Mind, and have no Remembrance of what is past: But some are suddenly fill'd with Extasies, Raptures and Transports of Joy, and an infallible Assurance: And generally with a bitter, censorious and uncharitable Spirit against all such as have not experienced these Raptures, or that don't look upon them as Evidences of an extraordinary and miraculous Conversion When they are once thus inlightned, they pretend to a Spirit of discerning, and by comparing Experiences, can tell who are converted, and who not, with so much Certainty as that they cannot be deceiv'd in one Instant in a Hundred: And on them whom they judge unconverted, they very freely bestow the Epithets of Pharisees, Hypocrites, and the like: And it is their profess'd Principle to turn out all unconverted Ministers, and to make a general Separation between the Precious and the Vile. Hence they have openly condemn'd several Ministers, tho' nothing appears of Error in their Doctrine, or Scandal in their Lives; but have been shining Examples of Piety, and some of them Pillars in the Church; and have charged their People to withdraw from them and go and hear converted Ministers, or set up private separate Meetings among themselves: And accordingly many Churches seem to be upon the Point of dividing and breaking into Pieces. Mr. D——p of Long-Island, is the most remarkable Instance of this kind: He has travelled from Stonington to New-Haven about 80 Miles, and condemn'd almost all the Ministers, particularly, that shining Example of Piety and Pillar of our Churches, the aged and venerable Mr. ADAMS, and commanded his People to withdraw from him; accordingly a considerable Number of the Communicants lately withdrew from him, as being a carnal old Pharisee. In many Places where he comes, few or none will go to hear him; and wherever he can gain any considerable Party, he puts a stop to all serious Concern and vital Piety, by turning all Religion into Parties and Quarrels. At New-Haven he, some other Ministers and gifted Brethren held forth every Day from the beginning of the Week, and generally continued to 10 or 11 o'Clock at Night; and then a great Part of their carryings on was not by Praying, Singing and Preaching upon a Text as usual; but one would make a short Prayer, then another give a Word of Exhortation: Then one would propose a Psalm, then another a Prayer, then another a Word of Exhortation, and so on, without any certain Order or Method, so that in one Meeting of 2 or 3 Hours, there would be it may be, 20 or 30 distinct Exercises carried on by 5 or 10 distinct Persons; some standing in the Pulpit, some in the Body of Seats, some in the Pews and some up Gallery; and oftentimes several of them would speak together: So that, some praying, some exhorting & terrifying, some singing, some screaming, some crying, some laughing and some scolding, made the most amazing Confusion that ever was heard. Mr. D——in almost every Prayer vents himself against the Minister of the Place and often declares him to be an unconverted Man, says, that Thousands are now cursing of him in Hell, for being the Instrument of their Damnation. He charges all to pray for his Destruction and Confusion: He frequently calls him, a Hypocrite, a Wolf in Sheep's Cloathing, and a Devil incarnate: And uses such vile and opprobrious Language, as that had it been done by any other Man he would have been immediately sent to the Work-House. I think that few or none of his greatest Admirers undertake peremptorily to justifie these Things. But they have conceived such an extraordinary Opinion of his Holiness and Success, as that they seem to suppose that he has some extraordinary Assistance or Commission to do that which mayn't be done by any other Man.

THE Rev. Trustees of the College and other Ministers at the Commencement being greatly concern'd about these Things sent to D—and his Party to desire a Conference with them in the Library, but receiv'd dilatory Answers. Once a Messenger came and said he suppos'd Mr D—— would be there presently; whereupon the Gentlemen waited about 2 Hours, and then sent another Messenger, who return'd an Answer, that Mr. D—— reckon'd it his Duty to stay where he was. Whereupon the Ministers went Home as thinking all further Attempts would be Fruitless. On the next Sabbath he drew a Party and held a Meeting in a private House.

Boston Oct. 26 By Letters from Lisbon to Gentlemen in this Town, we are informed, the Portuguese, influenced by the French, are of late grown very insolent and abusive to the English, in the several Ports of Portugal. At Oporto they have imprisoned the Lieut. of the Argyle Man of War, with the whole Boat's Crew, and the Grampus's Boat going from the shore to the Ship, had several shots fired at her from the Castle. An Account of these Insults is sent to Sir John Norris, to be laid before his Majesty; and the Merchants in Lisbon write, that if something is not speedily done to restrain the Insolence of the Portuguese, there will be no living for the English in that Country.
